

Irina Heimerle
69 Arthur Street
Truro, NS B2N 1X7
1-902-921-1291
irinaheimerle@gmail.com

Profile Statement

Ambitious IT Web Development student eager to contribute my experience and skills to The Chronicle Herald.

Qualifications

- Maintained high academic standing while balancing a Social Coordinator position on campus.
- Demonstrated strong leadership ability coordinating multiple events for the student body.
- Worked with various team sizes to successfully complete projects.
- Able to grasp new concepts quickly and efficiently through various methods such as instructed lessons and self-instructed lessons.

Technical/Course Experience

Operating Systems - Linux	This course covered the basics of the Linux using Ubuntu.
Web Development	This course covered HTML5 and CSS extensively as well as Bootstrap and introductory JavaScript.
Client-Side Programming	This course covered basic JavaScript skills, SCSS, and explored package management technologies such as Gulp.
Introductory Programming (Python)	Introductory programming course using Python.
Object Oriented Programming	Object oriented programming course using Java and technologies like Git.
Systems Analysis & Design	This course covered analysis and design phases of the SDLC, focusing on object-oriented methodologies. Basic introduction to the Unified Modeling Language.

Database Development

Database course using MySQL through Oracle 10g.

Education

- Sept 17 Nova Scotia Community College
Truro, NS
Pursuing a degree in Information Technology with a focus in the Web Development sector.
- Aug. 15 – May 17 Hunter College
New York, NY
Graduated with a degree in English Literature with a focus in Creative Writing.
- Sept. 09 - June 13 12, Smithtown High School East
Smithtown, NY
Graduated with honours with High School Degree.

Volunteer Experiences

- Oct 17 - Present Social Coordinator
NSCC Truro, Nova Scotia
Promoted events as well as volunteered at various events over the course of the semester.

References available upon request.